

Indiana has regulations that have done a fantastic job of controlling the telemarketers. We used to be snowed under with calls night after night. Week-ends as well were utilized by the telemarketers. We are very thankful for the control the State of Indiana has over this problem. My request is that the FCC do nothing that will weaken our current regulations. Thanks